Sweet Liberty

Spring Tulips

One Block,
Three Quilts

Flower Strip

A Message from Barbara

June in coastal New England is a magical month. Flowers are in bloom. It's warm enough to shed jackets, warm enough to garden, and warm enough to walk the beach. It's time to enjoy the local scene before the onslaught of tourists—to get together with friends and not have to wait in line at restaurants.

In a few weeks children will be out of school and many of my friends will be busy entertaining grandchildren or hosting out-of-town relatives coming to enjoy the beach. For now, we're making the most of this time.

Barbara Chojnacki

While you have the time, why not visit your local quilt shop? Stock up on what you'll need for the next couple of months. When things get busier later in the summer, you'll be looking forward to those snatches of time you can spend on your quilting and be happy you were well prepared!

Of course we hope you've been following along with our mystery quilt and BOMs. Linda Anthony's ongoing Scrap It Up, Row a Month ROM ends this month, so if you're running behind a bit, now is the time to play catch up. Karen Saari's happy Flower Strip Row is part of our "My Favorite Things" series. This can become part of a larger quilt or be finished off as a wall hanging. And because it is done by hand, it's the "perfect portable project"!

June is the month we observe Flag Day in the United States, and in another few weeks we'll be celebrating Independence Day. Our own Barbara Douglas has an easy and versatile patriotic design in this issue. Sweet Liberty can be made as a runner (or banner), placemats, or mug rugs. Why not make the entire set so you can use it for years to come?

Happy Quilting,

Barbara

Our Commitment to Our Readers and to Quality

Here, at The Quilt Pattern Magazine, we are committed to bringing you top-quality patterns that you can depend upon. Our designers are required to have completed their original quilts and to have their patterns tested before submitting them to us. Our team of editors (who are all quilters, too!) then format the patterns (retaining national spellings) and send them out for testing again. Our testers follow the directions from beginning to end, making the entire top (not just a few blocks), including multiple sizes when necessary, to ensure that the materials list, directions, illustrations, and templates are all accurate.
