Now Which Way

A Message from Bonny

I am hopeful that this last month of 2020 is full of love for those around you and hope for better days ahead. This year has been full of trials and tribulations as COVID-19 has impacted our world. For some, it has provided time to sew for others and give back to our communities. For others, it has led to sorrow and loss. I hope that The Quilt Pattern Magazine and its private online community, Pattern Pastiche, has, and will continue to be, a source of support and community for you.

Bonny Peters

This editorial is being written months before publication. That is the nature of magazines. Behind the scenes, the staff is working on some components as much as 8 months ahead. That is how we can provide timely patterns for each season that have been tested by other quilters like yourself. I hope you enjoy this month's line-up.

Three BOMs continue with month 2 of 6 of my Joker's Wild, a simple sampler quilt, month 4 of 8 of Nan Baker's Final Spin, a dynamic design full of movement utilizing stitch-and-flip piecing and month 2 of 4 of Kathryn Errante's A Walk in the Neighborhood mystery. Four other patterns fill out this month's issue. In Boxed Dutchman, RaeLyn Boothe provides a twist on the traditional Dutchman's puzzle block. Now Which Way? by Amy Stirrup is a motion-filled quilt created from a fabulous secondary design that appears as the blocks are pieced together. My Wild Dreams is another moving design with only nine blocks. Vege Stir Fry is a great scrap quilt from Cinzia White. She shares a neat piecing trick you'll want to be sure to check out.

To round out the issue is an article from Alma Barkman called Scrap Quilting. I'm anxious to read what she has to say about this traditional method.

Take care, stay well, Bonny

Our Commitment to Our Readers and to Quality

Here, at The Quilt Pattern Magazine, we are committed to bringing you top-quality patterns that you can depend upon. Our designers are required to have completed their original quilts and to have their patterns tested before submitting them to us. Our team of editors (who are all quilters, too!) then format the patterns (retaining national spellings) and send them out for testing again. Our testers follow the directions from beginning to end, making the entire top (not just a few blocks), including multiple sizes when necessary, to ensure that the materials list, directions, illustrations, and templates are all accurate.
